RESULT OF A FAMILY QUARREL

Dora Annett Shot and Fatally Wounded Her Husband.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., May 24.—In a family quarrel at Henderson, Madison county, Dora Annett shot and fatally wounded her husband, Dora Annett, with a revolver. Annett had beaten his wife and was trying to take her revolver from her when she fired. The Annetts are prominent in eastern Kentucky. The woman was placed in jail. Annett will die.

There are different opinions as to whether it was done accidentally or on purpose. Mrs. Annett is in the custody of the jailer. She is said to be quite intoxicated. She was formerly a Miss Thompson, of Virginia, and her first husband was D. M. Annett, son of H. G. Annett, a prominent citizen of this county.

Mrs. Annett is prostrated over the affair, and claims the shooting of her husband was accidental. She is related to ex-Gov. Judge A. Wise of Virginia, of Breathitt county.

The Better Way

The tissues of the throat are inflamed and irritated; you cough, and there is more irritation—more coughing. You take a cough mixture and it cures the irritation—for a while. You take and it cures the cold. That's what is necessary. It soothes the throat because it reduces the irritation; cures the cold because it drives out the inflammation; cures the cough because it nourishes them back to their natural strength. That's why Scott's Emulsion deals with every throat, a cough, a cold, or bronchitis.

BIRTHS
The influence of Seattle and Powers.
How prone one is to be governed in his moods by outward conditions, how amiable the world seems in the sweet spring time when nature is re-awakened, and how often the spring feelings have their effect on men and women. A gentle man tells us that he stopped in W. D. Davidson's store, and tried on one of his new suits from the celebrated makers, Schaefer Bros. & Co., of Baltimore, and after viewing himself with pride and contentment in the accompaniment of his wife and child, he turned and said: "It makes a fellow feel good to go to a good tailor, and I believe it just as good medicine as half the doctors could give you. I feel like the world is a better place, and I feel like I am a better man." The influence of Seattle and Powers.
